THE PORT ROYAL HORROR.

Hurricane's Work in The South.

Port Royal, 29.—It seems that on account of the storm the ferry man could not convey passengers across the river.
Passengers gathered in the ferry house awaiting an abatement of the storm, when the house was carried away by the high tide. Seven bodies were recovered to-day. The number actually drowned is uncertain, but it is rumored that they vary from twenty to forty. One washer and one dredge of the Coosaw Mining company in Coosaw River sunk. No lives were lost. Considerable damage was done to the wharves and lighters of the company.

Charleston, 29.—No mention of the loss of life at Port Royal ferry is made in Beaufort letters dated yesterday. The wires are still down.

Augusta, Ga., 29.—A terrific hurricane visited Savannah on Saturday night.
The velocity of the wind was about eighty miles an hour. Early in the evening the signal service office was unroofed and the instruments were destroyed. A portion of the roof of the roof of the Morning News office was blown off and the building flooded. The city exchange was badly damaged. A number of firms on the bay lost heavily by damage to goods. About fifty private dwellings were more or less injured.
The sheds on the new wharf of the Baltimore steamship line was blown entirely down. Several flour and rice mills were unroofed and the contents flooded. A large portion of the city was under water for several hours. The Central railroad wharves were badly damaged. The public parks were torn of the finest trees and otherwise injured. The destruction of shade trees is very great. The Georgia infirmary was wrecked and the patients barely escaped.
A number were bruised by falling brick and plaster. The German brig Maria Louise, Capt. Mink, had her stern badly mashed, and the rudder, bowsprit and jibboom broken. Her sides were also injured. The pilot boat, Maid of the Mist, came in collision with a schooner and sunk. Several other tug boats were injured. The steamer City of Bridget, had a hole punched in her side. A house was swept down the river and three of the occupants, Mrs. Stokes and her two children, were drowned—Mr. Stokes barely escaped. Engineer Richard Fitzgerald, of the U. S. Fleet, was drowned. The loss of life among the colored people occupying little huts on the rice plantations and along the river was very great. On Tybee Island the house of Henry Solomon was blown down and the ruins caught fire. Three persons perished. The family of David Bowers, colored, comprising seven persons, all drowned. A colored woman and four children washed away in their house and drowned. All the people on Shad Island drowned. Several other persons were known to have perished. At Fort Pulaski the officers' quarters were flooded. The telegraph lines to Savannah are all down. It is apprehended that notwithstanding the warnings of the approaching storm, some vessels along the coast suffered, and news of disasters will be received during the week. The storm has been very severe, and particularly dangerous to vessels, from the fact that the wind shifted frequently and blew with equal severity from the northeast, northwest and west.
At Beaufort the water house wharf washed away, and two sloops were washed under the bluff. The streets were filled with water. At Port Royal the bridge connecting the wharf with the cotton compress, washed away, and part of the railroad track was destroyed. Ten negro hands of the Coosaw Mining Company, returning home on Saturday night got a ferry house at Port Royal, ten miles from the town, for protection, the house washed away and the men were drowned, the only loss of life reported. Several pilot boats and a United States tug were washed ashore.

Little Rock, 29.—It is reported that Joseph Wolf, wife and child, of this city, were killed by the tornado at Savannah. He was a prominent merchant.
A New York, 30.—Herald's Macon, Ga., A terrific tornado burst into the heart of Savannah on Saturday at dark. In a few minutes the city was in darkness and parks, streets and squares rendered impassable by falling trees and buildings. Every wire leading out of the city was prostrated. Fully 100 dwellings houses, stores and warehouses lost their roofs, and many had their walls blown in. One house containing six persons was blown into the river and five people were drowned. The total loss of lives is probably 35. Many more were wounded. The ships in the river broke loose from their moorings, and several were sunk and a number damaged. The steamer City of Macon sailed for New York a few hours before the storm broke, and much anxiety is felt for her safety.
She had on board Wm. Wadley, president of the Georgia Central railroad.
On Tybee Island nearly every house has been blown away. One house took fire after a fall, consuming Mrs. Georgia Woolfe, her child and her little brother.
Other dreadful scenes are reported at various river resorts. In Savannah, depots, wharves and elevators and large buildings suffered great damage. The Savannah Morning News building was unroofed, and the printers set up the paper in six inches of water. The beautiful trees for which the city is noted are greatly damaged, and Buena Ventura is in a sad plight. Business is paralyzed and over $100,000 loss has been incurred.
